First Sunday of Advent (B)

First Week of Advent Vol I, psalter week I

Readings: Isaiah 63:16-17; 64:1. 3-8 Psalm 79:2-3.15-16.18-19. R. v4 ICorinthians 1:3-9 Mark 13:33-37 Children's Liturgy during the 10.00am Mass

TODAY'S MASS

Today the new liturgical year begins, and this year is the Year of Mark (Year B). In the words of John Betjeman The bells of waiting Advent ring, and Advent is a season of waiting, for Christ's coming at Christmas and at the end of time (as the Preface for today's Mass declares). The Gloria is not sung on Sundays in Advent.

Both the First Reading and the Psalm are communal laments, pleading with God to come and save us from our selfinflicted misery. The prophecy of Isaiah, with its many predictions of the coming of the Messiah, provides the First Reading on many days in Advent.

Second Reading: the opening words provide one of the greetings the priest may use at Mass. St Paul address the Christians at Corinth, as they "are waiting for our Lord Jesus Christ to be revealed" on the last day.

Gospel: in the parable of the absent master, Jesus warns His disciples to stay ready and vigilant for the End, which may come at any time. Only the Father knows when that will come, so we must "stay awake".

YEAR B: THE YEAR OF MARK

Although placed second Mark is considered by most scholars to be the earliest of the three synoptic Gospels, and may have been used as a source by Matthew and Luke. Because the author is ignorant of Palestinian geography and Jewish laws and customs, and uses Latin words (eg centurion), he may have come from Rome, and may have learnt about Jesus from St Peter. Scholars date it to the 60s or 70s AD.

There are five key themes:

- 1. Suffering: Jesus fulfils His destiny by suffering and dying, and any disciple must likewise suffer (8:34 10:52);
- 2. The person of Christ: who Jesus is is the main question (e.g. Son of God 15:39);

Upcoming Events

- 3. Discipleship: following Jesus in the way of the cross;
- 4. The Kingdom of God: see the parables of the kingdom (4: I 34);
- 5. The Messianic Secret: Jesus repeatedly silences those who would announce He is the Messiah (1:25, 34, 43 45 etc). Mysteriously, Mark ends in the middle of a sentence. Only YOU can complete the story, by following the way of the cross as a disciple of Jesus, the Messiah.

It then follows the development and spread of cribs throughout Europe and beyond. COVID RECOVERY

According to the recent Sunday Mass count, our Sunday Mass attendance is about 70% of the pre-COVID figure. There will be a number of reasons for the downturn, but as a parish we need to address them and ALL work together to try and win back those who have stopped coming to Mass. This is not because we want a good Collection but because as the Baptized People of God we are concerned for all our fellow pilgrims and for the eternal destiny of their souls. From time to time there will be suggestions as to what we can do in this Newsletter. Good ideas are not the Parish Priest's monopoly: if you have a good suggestion please let us know.

Surveys of 'lapsed' Catholics report that - whatever their reason for stopping atten-ding Mass - there is often a feeling of disconnection or alienation. A typical comment was: "No one misses the fact that we stopped going. No one has called from the parish, even though we were regular attendees."

We might conjecture that typical British reticence or social awkwardness might cause this lack of contact, but it means that those who have stopped attending feel that no one cares about them. So, do YOU know a person or a family who have stopped coming to Mass? If so, pluck up the courage to contact them and say you haven't seen them for a while. I can't possibly know all the people who used to come but you may know someone. Don't be shy, make contact with them!
