Third Sunday of Advent (B) Gaudete Sunday

> Third Week of Advent Vol I, psalter week 3

Readings: Isaiah 61:1-2.10-11 Psalm Lk 1:46-50.53-54 I Thessalonians 5:16-24 John 1:6-8.19-28

TODAY'S MASS

The first word of the Entrance Antiphon gives this Sunday its popular name: Gaudete ('rejoice'). Today is a rare case when December 17th and the Third Sunday of Advent fall on the same day. December 17th is when the texts of Mass change and the liturgy focusses more directly on the forthcoming birth of Our Lord. Unfortunately, there are a couple of errors in the Jerusalem Mass Sheet: as today is the 17th Preface II of Advent is used (not Preface I), which is part based on today's Gospel, and Eucharistic Prayer II is not for use on Sundays (Roman Missal p 113), so do not be alarmed when the Celebrant uses a different one.

First Reading: Christians have always taken the 'me' here as referring to Jesus Christ, as Jesus Himself did (see Luke 4: 16 - 22). He is the anointed one (the Christ in Greek, the Messiah in Hebrew).

What follows is not actually a Psalm, but part of the psalm-like Song or Canticle of Mary we know as the Magnificat (the canticle used each day at Vespers or Evening Prayer).

Second Reading: rejoicing ('being happy') and constant prayer are, for St Paul, essential elements of being a Christian, a disciple of Jesus.

Gospel: like Luke in last week's Gospel, John begins his account of Jesus' birth with John the Baptist, who is but a witness to the light of the world, i.e. Jesus Christ Himself. Fr David

THE HOLY FATHER'S MONTHLY PRAYER INTENTION

Each month the Holy Father offers a specific prayer intention, inviting men and women of good will to pray with him for a particular cause.

For December, Pope Francis the faithful to pray asks that people living with disabilities may be at the centre of society's attention, and that institutions may offer inclusive programmes which value their participation. 'Creating a fully accessible parish requires... helping parishioners to develop attitudes and acts of solidarity and service towards persons with disabilities and their families. Our aim should be to speak no longer about "them", but rather about "us".' – Pope Francis

NEXT SUNDAY (24th) As you will have spotted, Christmas Eve this year is a Sunday and Christmas Day is a Monday. As both are Days of Obligation, when we are obliged to attend Mass if we can, please do not think that attending one Mass over these days counts for both; it doesn't: you should attend Mass on Saturday evening or Sunday morning - for the Sunday of Advent IV and again attend Mass on Sunday evening or Monday morning - for Christmas. If you attend Mass on Sunday morning and again on Sunday evening, you are allowed to receive Holy Communion at both Masses.

Holy Mass for the Fourth Sunday of Advent is at 6.30pm (Saturday), 8.00am, 10.00am and 12noon.

The Crib Offerings this year - in view of what is happening in Palestine and Israel will be sent to the Latin Patriarchate of Jerusalem, earmarked for medical and humanitarian needs, via the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem, of which Fr David is a Knight Commander. This will ensure the aid gets to where it is most needed. It used to be unlawful in the UK to send aid to Gaza, but the government has temporarily suspended this, so our donation can be used to provide food, water, shelter and medicines to the people there, as well as elsewhere in the area.

COVID RECOVERY

During the COVID lockdown watching Holy Mass on livestream became very popular. However there are no longer any restrictions on church attendance and so people should have returned to attending Mass every Sunday and Holy Day. We need to be clear that watching a livestreamed Mass does not count as attending Mass; in the Church's jargon it does not fulfil the Sunday obligation, which was reinstated some time ago by the Bishops.

There are those who are genuinely ill - or caring for a seriously ill person - or who are housebound and who are, therefore, unable to get to Mass, and watching a livestreamed Mass is the best they can do, and is commendable. Livestream viewers can make a spiritual communion at the appropriate time.

However, if you are not in this category you should now be attending Sunday Mass if at all possible. Perhaps you have become afraid to venture out, or have simply lost the habit of going to Mass, or you need a lift to church (just contact Thelma in the Office if so). But, as I have said, watching a livestream of Mass does not count as attending Mass. As someone said, parents wouldn't seek to feed their children by getting them to watch a livestream of someone else eating. Likewise Christ doesn't feed us with His Word and His Body and Blood if we are only viewing on our computer. Fr David

SAFEGUARDING

It is the policy of the Catholic Church in England and Wales to report all allegations of abuse to statutory authorities, regardless of whether the abuse occurred recently or in the past, or whether the accused person is living or deceased. If you are concerned about the welfare of a child or adult at risk, do not delay in contacting the police, using 999 if a child or adult is believed to be in immediate danger. Further safeguarding information can be found on the parish website.
