

TV STREAMING

The church has an in-house camera which can be activated to film and record your wedding. The camera is fixed and shows the altar and front two rows of pews.

We can provide a private recording which can be downloaded as a permanent record of the ceremony. There is a charge of £120 for this service.