Second Sunday of Advent (B)

Second Week of Advent Vol I, psalter week 2

Readings: Isaiah 40:1-5.9-11 Psalm 84:9-14. R. v8 2 Peter 3:8-14 Mark 1:1-8 Children's Liturgy during the 10.00am Mass

Continental Breakfast will be served after the 8.00am Mass until noon in the Lower Hall

TODAY'S MASS

First Reading: each of the first three Gospels saw in this passage of the prophecy of Isaiah a prefiguration of John the Baptist, who warns people to prepare for the coming of God to Mt Zion (which is in Jerusalem).

Psalm: a psalm asking God to come, confident that he will.

Second Reading: St Peter explains the apparent delay in Christ's second coming. First, God's time is not our time. Secondly, he is being merciful in delaying, by giving us time to repent.

Gospel: the very beginning of St Mark's Gospel starts with John the Baptist, who points forward to the coming of Jesus. The few details Mark gives (the wilderness, John's clothes and diet, etc.) and the reference to Isaiah reveal to those who know their Scripture that the one who is coming is the Messiah. Fr David

Meanwhile the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed for prayer, and the Liturgy will conclude with Benediction, ending at 9.00pm. Come and confess early for Christmas!

Find out more at https://housing justice.org.uk/donate-now-orget-involved/become-a-host

In partnership with Housing Justice Caritas Southwark is hosting an online information session on Wednesday 13 December, 7.30-8.30pm for people interested in becoming a host for a refugee. Please email Caritas directly to receive the link for the session: caritassouthwark@rcaos.org.uk

THE HOLY FATHER'S MONTHLY PRAYER INTENTION

Each month the Holy Father offers a specific prayer intention, inviting men and women of good will to pray with him for a particular cause.

For December, Pope Francis the faithful to pray asks that people living with disabilities may be at the centre of society's attention, and that institutions may offer inclusive programmes which value their participation. 'Creating a fully accessible parish requires... helping parishioners to develop attitudes and acts of solidarity and service towards persons with disabilities and their families. Our aim should be to speak no longer about "them", but rather about "us".' -Pope Francis adaywithmary.org.

COVID RECOVERY

The fuss over the people at the heart of government holding parties while the rest of us were observing the COVID lockdown well illustrates an important facet of human behaviour, namely that people adopt a belief if those proposing it are seen to be living it out, perhaps at some cost to themselves. Expressions like 'practise what you preach', 'put your money where your mouth is' and 'walk the walk, don't just talk the talk' demonstrate this. We Catholics are perhaps more familiar with Pope St Paul VI's statement of this idea in Evangelii Nuntiandi 41: "modern man listens more willingly to witnesses than to teachers, and if he does listen to teachers it is because they are witnesses".

Suppose your GP says you must eat less and exercise more. If you see him or her out jogging and eating modestly in a café, you will be more likely to do as he/she suggests. Conversely, if you see your GP smoking and eating hearty portions, and manifestly putting on weight, you are much less likely to do what the GP indicates. It is the same with our Catholic witness. If your neighbours, work colleagues, school friends, family members witness you living out the Catholic faith - clearly saying prayers, regularly attending Mass, giving to those in need, helping those in need, being friendly and helpful, etc - they are more likely, if Catholics, to follow your example and return to Mass. On the contrary, if they see you being miserable and unfriendly, and not being at all self denying and loving, they will conclude the faith is humbug.

If you are lukewarm in your observance of the faith - attending Mass infrequently, rarely praying, seldom doing good works, and so on - you will be deterring others from practising their faith. But if you are seen to love God and love your neighbour this will be a powerful witness which may well help to bring back those who lapsed during the COVID period.

Fr David

SAFEGUARDING

It is the policy of the Catholic Church in England and Wales to report all allegations of abuse to statutory authorities, regardless of whether the abuse occurred recently or in the past, or whether the accused person is living or deceased. If you are concerned about the welfare of a child or adult at risk, do not delay in contacting the police, using 999 if a child or adult is believed to be in immediate danger. Further safeguarding information can be found on the parish website.
