The Epiphany of The Lord (B)

First Week in Ordinary Time
Vol 1, psalter week 1

Readings: Isaiah 60:1-6 Psalm 71:1-2.7-8.10-13.Rcf.v11 Ephesians 3:2-3.5-6 Matthew 2:1-12

TODAY'S MASS

There are different propers for the Vigil Mass (Saturday evening) and Mass during the day, but the Readings are the same. The Epiphany of the Lord is one of the most important Solemnities in the Church's year, second in rank only to the Paschal Triduum.

First Reading: Isaiah's vision of the gathering of the nations came true - we believe - when the magi came to see Jesus in Bethlehem.

Psalm: this psalm was soon adopted by the early church as the set psalm for today's feast. It pictures a king (Jesus) who governs wisely and justly and who is concerned for the poor and weak.

Second Reading: this asserts that it had always been God's plan that salvation through Jesus Christ would be available to the Gentiles (non-Jews) as well as the Jews themselves.

Gospel: the Gospel could hardly be anything other than Matthew's account of the visit of the magi or wise men to the Christ child in Bethlehem. The main point is the revelation of Jesus to the Gentiles, who - represented by the magi - pay Him homage. The gifts symbolise that Jesus is a king (gold), divine (frankincense) and the suffering Saviour (myrrh). Myrrh is a fragrant gum resin; it was used at the time in the embalming of dead bodies.

This Week

MONDAY: BAPTISM of the LORD

This Feast is the last day of the Christmas Season. It is, therefore, the last day when you can venerate the Christmas Crib and make your Crib Offerings. The Crib Offerings will be sent via the Knights of the Holy Sepulchre to the Latin Patriarchate of Jerusalem for humanitarian aid, especially in Gaza. You can Gift Aid your donation, either by using an envelope with your name and 'GA' written on it or by making a bank transfer, giving 'Crib Offering' and your name in the reference.

ORDINARY TIME

Ordinary Time begins on Tuesday. In Ordinary Time no particular aspect of the mystery of Christ is celebrated, but rather on Sundays we work through the Gospel of Mark (with a few readings from John). The Mass readings this week will be from Week I of Ordinary Time, cycle 2. Green vestments are worn, unless it is a saint's day or other feast.

TUESDAY: MONTHLY CONVENT MASS

The monthly Mass at the Daughters of the Heart of Mary (41 Murray Road, SW19) is on Tuesday at 8.00am.

PRIMARY SCHOOL FORMS

Fr David will be available on Tuesday at 4.00pm and again at 7.00pm in the Hall to countersign Supplementary Forms for Catholic Primary Schools. Please bring the child concerned as well as the form(s). If you are genuinely unable to attend then, contact Thelma in the Office to make an alternative appointment. Do not hand forms in to the Presbytery and do not approach Fr David after Mass; if you do, the forms will not be processed.

TRANSFER FROM THE JESUITS

Wednesday marks the 10th anniversary of the withdrawal of the Society of Jesus from the parish and the commencement of service in the parish by Diocesan priests. This is commemorated by a plaque near the Baptistry.

THURSDAY: MASS AT SACRED HEART SCHOOL

Mass at 9.00am on Thursday in the School Hall. Parents and family members are welcome to attend, and indeed all parishioners are invited to attend.

NEXT SUNDAY

Next Sunday is Peace Day, a day of prayer for Peace on Earth. Visit <https://paxchristi.org.uk/> for information on Peace Sunday and on how to donate to Pax Christi UK.

YEAR OF PRAYER - 2024

In preparation for the Jubilee Year of 2024, Pope Francis has designated 2024 as a Year of Prayer. This is intended to remind people of the centrality of both individual and community prayer, and there is a particular focus on the Our Father; this gives us a great opportunity to go back to the basics of prayer. Note that this is not a year about prayer but a year for prayer.

Accordingly, I invite every parishioner to reflect on their life of prayer: what you pray, how you pray, and why you pray. I hope that this will encourage you to deepen your prayer life and love of God, and that each parishioner will help at least one other person to pray during this Year of Prayer.

Secondly, I ask every parish group and organisation (even those groups which don't seem to be concerned with prayer) to consider, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, how you can pray better as a group and how you can encourage prayer generally.

Various resources, ideas and suggestions will be advertised throughout the year. The Jesuit Institute has produced a booklet called Pilgrims of Prayer, which you can download from <https://www.jesuit.org.uk/news/a-symphony-of-prayer>.
