Year of Prayer 2026 • The Baptism of the Lord
First Week in Ordinary Time

Today's Mass

The season of Christmas ends today.

First Reading (42:1-4,6-7): Isaiah describes the true servant of God and of the community. The Church has always seen here a portrait of Christ, especially in the reference to the servant as 'covenant of the people and light of the nations'.

Psalm 29(28) is a majestic hymn of praise to the Lord, the God of thunder and water. It recalls how God uses water in our salvation, from Creation through Noah and the Flood, the Exodus, and on to Christ's (and our) baptism.

Second Reading (Acts 10:34-38): In his sermon to Cornelius and his household (who, significantly, are Gentiles rather than Jews), St Peter recounts Jesus' ministry and how it began with His baptism.

Gospel (Matthew 3:13-17): Jesus is baptized in the River Jordan by John. John tries to dissuade Jesus because he understands that Jesus, the sinless one, does not need Baptism, but Jesus insists. Jesus' baptism marks the beginning of Our Lord's public ministry.

This is one of the rare times in all Scripture when the three persons of the Holy Trinity appear together. This reminds us that at our own baptism, we were baptized in the name of the three persons of the Godhead.

Parish Finance Committee

... meets on Monday evening.

Dorotela Pereira RIP

Memorial Mass at 1.00pm on Saturday 17 January.

Thank You

A big thank you to all who cleaned and decorated the Church for Christmas, to our musicians, Altar Servers, Mass readers, welcomers, and all who helped in any way to make our Christmas Liturgies go so well. All our Masses and liturgies were very well attended, and so this will have had a big impact on evangelization, as many of those who attended will have been non-Catholics or even non-Christians.

Some of you may know that when the Christmas Crib figures were unpacked, the baby Jesus figure's head was broken off. We are very grateful to the parishioner who arranged for emergency repairs to be made. Out of disaster can come resurrection!

Thank you also to everyone who donated items or volunteered their time and talents to support our Christmas hamper appeal. Some 26 hampers were distributed to families and people in need in our community.

All of us in the Parish Team are most grateful for all the gifts, cards, and good wishes from parishioners, and wish you all every Blessing for the New Year.

Canon David

Diocesan notices

New Auxiliary Bishop

Pope Leo XIV has appointed Canon Gerald Bradley as Auxiliary Bishop for our Archdiocese. Bishop-Elect Gerard's Episcopal Ordination will be on Monday 2 February at St George's Cathedral. The Holy Father has assigned him the Titular See of Beverley, the birthplace of St John Fisher. Please keep Bishop-Elect Gerard in your prayers as he prepares for his new apostolate.

New Archbishop of Westminster

The Holy Father has appointed Rt Rev'd Richard Moth, previously Bishop of Arundel & Brighton, as the new Archbishop of Westminster. He is well known to us, having been Vicar General of Southwark before his Episcopal Ordination. In fact, he visited Favre House, the Catholic young adults house in our parish, only a week or two before the announcement!

Parish notices

Finances

Offertory Collections totalled £39,752 for November and £31,784 for December. The Second Collection for the Archbishop's Appeal was £1,761.60. £1,504.90 was donated for the Holy Souls in November, which will be allocated to 150 Masses to be offered throughout the year (usually by a concelebrating priest). Thank you for your generosity.

Request for help

A parishioner family, Beril and William, is seeking advice and guidance regarding professional opportunities in the South of England, particularly in academia, teaching, research, administrative, or pastoral-related roles. They would be very grateful to hear from anyone willing to offer informal advice, insights, or suggestions, especially related to employment at universities, colleges, chaplaincies, or associated institutions. Please email berilwilliamkallfelz@gmail.com.

Ambassadors for Christ

The Archdiocese of Southwark has launched an exciting apologetics project to provide evidence-based answers to questions such as 'Is Jesus God?' or 'Does prayer work?'. Ambassadors for Christ is designed to equip you with a deeper understanding of your faith, so that you can confidently answer questions and be a joyful witness for the Lord Jesus and his Church.

Every Monday, a new video will be posted on YouTube, along with a worksheet for parishes, schools, youth groups and families to use as part of their faith formation. The first video stars the Archbishop, while five of the later ones are presented by our very own Canon David. To learn more and take part, please visit rcaos.org.uk/ambassadorsforchrist.
